I. T. WARTHMAN
Superintendent

This book contains many memories of your high school days.

As you turn the pages and memories of the past come to you, this one thought will occur again and again, "I have left undone many things that I ought to have done."

The past is gone but Abraham Lincoln once said he would study and prepare himself and then some day his chance would come.

To all of you who in any way helped to make this fine annual a success, go my best wishes for work well done.

I. T. Warthman.

R. M. HARBECK
Principal

The continuation of the American form of government and way of life depends primarily upon two things—the desire to be free and an educated body of citizens. It is easy to sit back and let someone else make our decisions for us, but, in so doing we lose individual freedom. We must constantly strive to meet our personal responsibilities and we must learn the reasons and means for doing this. The American public schools have these things as part of their objectives.

During the year 1952-53, Volume XXII of the Purple & Gold, the official news voice of Ada Hi, was printed. Again this year there were twelve issues. Each paper published bi-weekly had six big pages.

Since there wasn't a printing class this year the Ada Herald printed the paper on Monday during the week the paper comes out; the editors and their assistants went to the Herald office and set the paper up. Papers were distributed in home rooms on Thursday.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a group of representatives elected from each class in the school. The purpose of this organization is to promote a better relationship between the faculty and the students and to further cooperation in all problems concerning the welfare of the school. The members for the year 1952-1953 are as follows:

Shirley Sheldon, President.....	Senior
Jack Suhr, Vice-President.....	Senior
Gloria Nichols, Secretary.....	Senior
Sally Smith, Treasurer.....	Sophomore
Bob Lamb, Sergeant-at-arms.....	Junior
Tom Tallman.....	Senior
Norma LaRue.....	Junior
Carlos Conley.....	Junior
Jerry Marshall.....	Sophomore
Joy Smith.....	Freshman
Sheila Simons.....	Eighth Grade
Viola Brown.....	Seventh Grade

The meetings of the Student Council are held every first and third Mondays, alternating fifth, seventh, and eighth periods. Their adviser is Miss Mabel Crawford.

Among the projects of the Student Council are the activity tickets, Interclass Contest and Banquet, the decorating of the Christmas tree, hall monitors, school parties, and the planning of assemblies. They also handle the business end of the concessions at the games.

The Student Council has three main committees. The Assembly Committee plans all the school assemblies for the year. It is composed of the vice presidents of each class, with Jack Suhr as chairman and Jerry Marshall and Bob Lamb as Council representatives.

The Social Committee is in charge of all the junior and senior high parties and the Interclass banquet. Gloria Nichols and Sally Smith are co-chairmen with Norma LaRue as assistant. Other members of the committee are Antoinette Anastasi, Joe Harrod, Gerald Dearth, Howard Umphress, and Doris Simon.

The Hall Monitors are responsible for keeping order in the halls between periods. This year the monitors are headed by Tom Tallman. The monitors are Wayne Fleming, Bill Gilbert, Fred Runser, Ed Baker, George Wissinger, Arden Searson, Bob Hitchcock, John Anspach, Bob Hooper, and Carlos Conley.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

On the evenings of April 9 and 10, the senior class of Ada High School presented THE ADORABLE SPENDTHRIFT, a comedy in three acts.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Mc Watters.....	Ralph Spar
Effie.....	Antoinette Anastasi
J. C. Mason.....	Bill Gilbert
Mrs. Mason.....	Anabel Motter
Irene Mason.....	Shirley Sheldon
Leroy Morton.....	Arden Searson
Senator Dan Pollard.....	Wayne Fleming
Hardy Mason.....	Ed Baker
Mrs. Reeves-Alton.....	Jean Warthman
Helen Reeves-Alton.....	Mary Griffith
Sari.....	Gloria Nichols
Bob Brackett.....	Dan Snyder
Mr. Stoneham.....	Tom Tallman
Miss Keyes.....	Shirley Tinsler
Perkins.....	Gunars Abele

Director.....Mr. Alfred Kahler

Hardy Mason has inherited $150,000 and the money goes to his head, not only his but also to the heads of his mother, Mrs. Mason, and his sister, Irene.

Hardy is engaged to a girl from Belgium whose name is Sari. When she arrives in Galesburg, Connecticut, to meet Hardy's parents, Mrs. Mason, Irene, Helen Reeves-Alton, an "old friend" of Hardy's who tries to break up Sari and Hardy (for only his money), and a few other socialites of Galesburg, make it very miserable for Sari right from the start. They treat her as a nobody, trying to make themselves so much better. Sari decides that the money is a curse to Hardy and his family and that Helen and other "so called" friends are using him because of his money, so she gives it all away to butlers, friends, and the ice man.

Later on, people start complaining about bad checks. The family finds out Hardy's account is $1,000 overdrawn. They can't understand why. Now that they have no money, the elite of the city snub them, and they have hardly any friends.

Everyone finds out Sari is responsible for this and they all hate her more than ever. Sari, seeing how important this money really is to Hardy, repays every cent. This is when everyone discovers she is a Countess.

Hardy refuses the money but--not long after, McWatters, the first butler, to whom Sari has given $30,000 to dig for oil, turns up and explains how he has sold his share to The Standard Oil Company for $2,000,000. Since it is Hardy's money that had been given to him he gives $1,000,000 to Hardy. Sari is determined to leave Hardy after this episode because she thinks he loves his money more than her. After a little explaining and persuasion, she stays--and everyone is happy again.

JUNIOR PLAY

On Thursday and Friday evenings, November 20 and 21, 1953, the play "No Boys Allowed" was presented by the juniors of Ada High School.

Rita Baxter, a teen-ager, is having a slumber party in the Baxter living room. Unknown to the girls, Mr. Midnight, a prowler, sneaks into the house. Rita is mad at her boy friend, Fred Dana, because he is seen kissing a blonde. Fred and his sidekick, Leroy, come over and try to explain to Rita that the blonde is just Fred's cousin.

O'Brien, an officer of the law, comes to the house and warns the girls to look for the prowler because he has been seen in this neighborhood. They decide to call up Chuck Garland (who likes Rita) and his pal, Harvey Smith, to come over and protect them.

Plots of all sorts complicate the play. Sandwiches disappear into thin air; also several of the girls and Officer O'Brien are kidnapped.

Fred and Harvey dress like girls so they can get into the house to see Rita. They explain again that the blonde is Fred's cousin. Mr. Midnight, who has been hiding in the closet, tries to escape but Fred grabs him and ties him up. Officer O'Brien tells Fred he will get the reward offered for the capture of the prowler. Rita realizes Fred is a hero so they make-up and everything ends happily.

VOCAL MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The vocal music department of Ada High School is under the direction of Mr. Stanley Salter. The department consists of a mixed chorus of one hundred voices, a freshmen mixed chorus of twenty seven voices, a girls' glee club of seventy-five voices and a boys' glee club of twenty-two voices.

The freshmen chorus worked on the same music as the high school mixed chorus, but made their only appearance in the Spring Concert. The other groups participated in several activities. They were a minstrel presented by the chorus on February 8 and 9, the Annual Spring Concert and the district Solo and Ensemble contest in Lima, and the District Choir Contest at Ohio Northern.

Majorettes

With snappy steps Shirley Tinsler led the band as drum majorette during all the football games. Majorettes were Shirley LaRue, Sharon and Sheila Simons. Sherry and Joyce Hauenstein gave a delightful performance at each game as mascot majorettes.

Marching Band

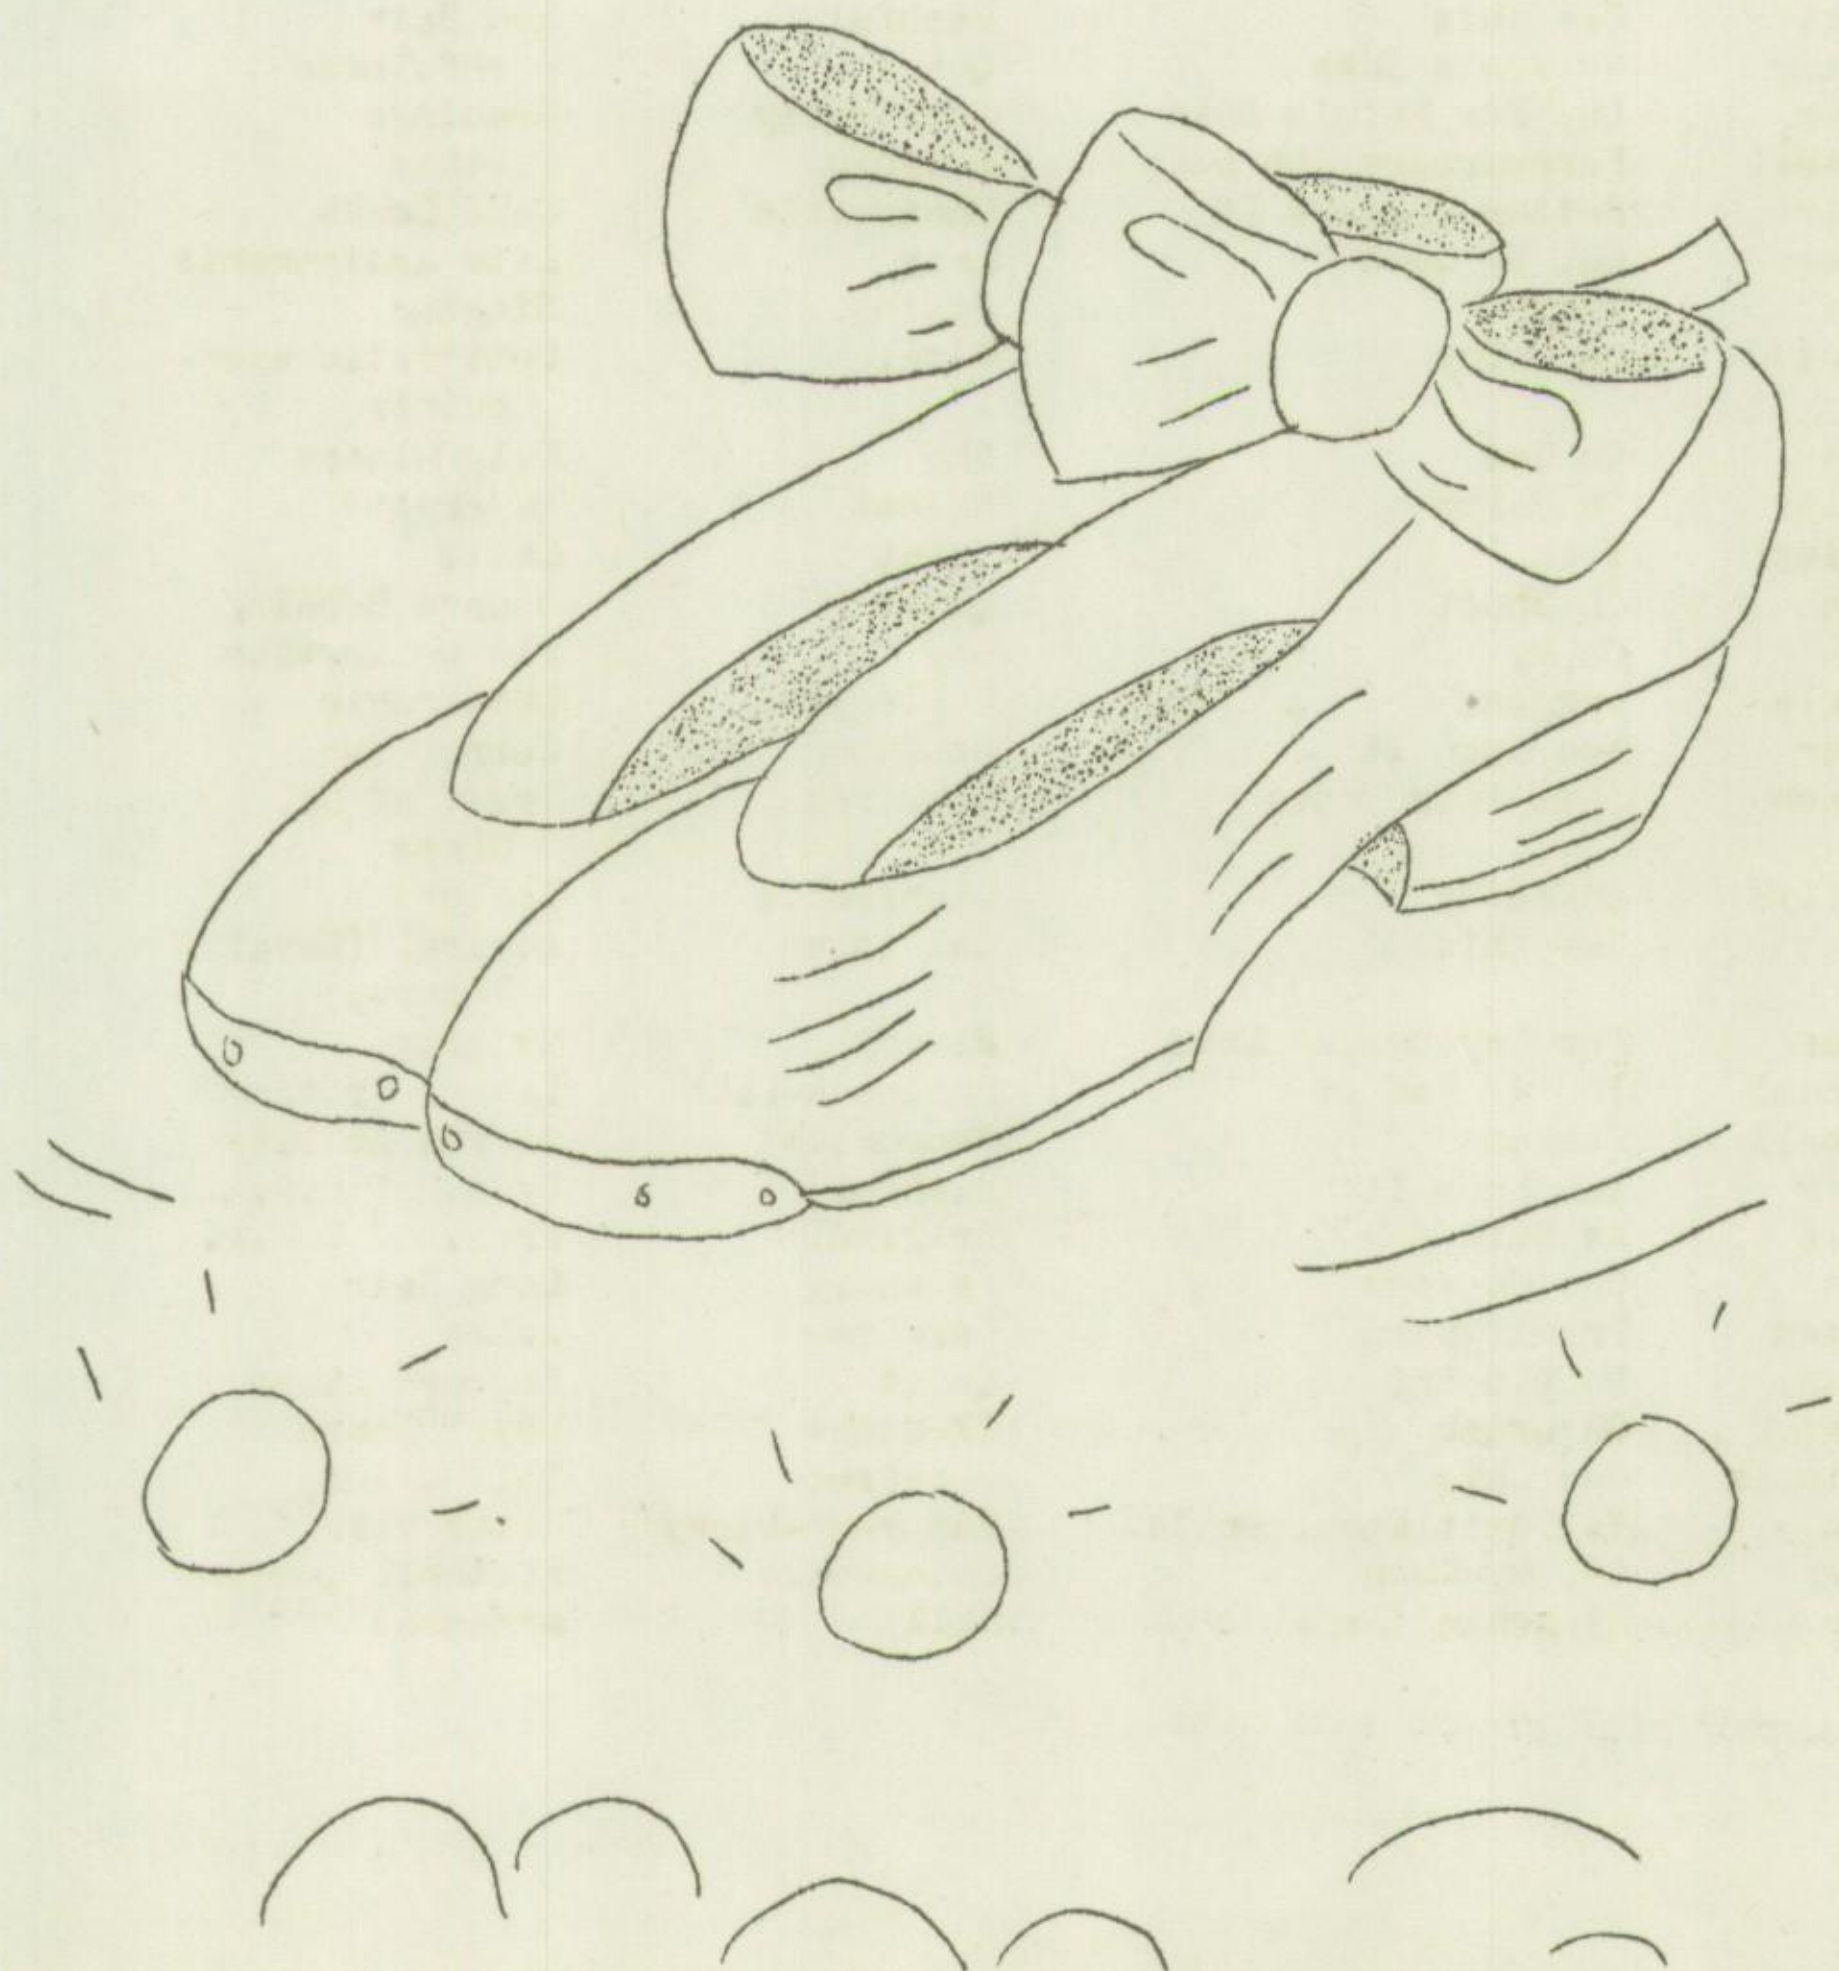

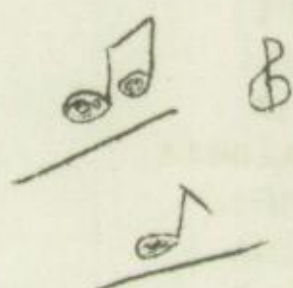

The peppy marching band, composed of forty members, grades seven through twelve, attended every football game during the season. They delighted audiences with formations and music through the half-time, under the direction of Mr. William Ansley.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE CHORUSES

The above junior high groups met every two weeks during the school year and participated in the Farmers' Institute and the Spring Concert. The regular practices held will enable these groups to make a better contribution to the senior high groups next year.

FRESHMEN SPARKLE

Jerry Hooper is his name, as class president he gained fame.
 Marian Stair is really hep; she leads cheers with lots of pep.
 In sports Charles Boutwell is a star; we are sure he will go far.
 Flecia Gibbons is a lot of fun; she's a pal to everyone.
 John VanAtta in his Sunday suit, looks very masculine and quite cute.
 Laura Heller with her wit, in her class has made a hit.
 James Nonamaker for his choice lass has chosen a girl from the eighth grade class.
 Vivian Harmon, although quite shy, is really attractive to the eye.
 I'm sure you all know Gary Brown, he is really quite a clown.
 Butch LaRue is not so tall, but still he's liked by one and all.
 Carol Gardner short and sweet, always looks so very neat.
 Jerry Koop you'll always find, handing his lessons in on time.
 Donnie Fisher hates to study, but nevertheless he's everyone's buddy.
 Marilyn Warthman's grade cards show that her grades are never low.
 Gene McClure is a nice guy even though a little shy.
 Butch Klingler as a clown is very seldom given a frown.
 In and out of all their classes they're really quite a group of lads and lasses.

CLASS HISTORY

At long last we have achieved our goal at Ada High School. Seniors! But now we will take you into the deep, dark past, many years ago, when we, as first graders, started toward the top.

On September 7, 1941, the forty-three seniors sitting before you started on their long road of adventure through school. Sixteen of this group began their school life in Ada. Miss Reese and Miss Wehe were the kind teachers who guided us through our first year.

Proud but still unexperienced, we advanced to the second grade. We felt grown up now as Miss Whitworth and Miss Povenmire tried to teach us the simple fundamentals of spelling; but we still had "Jack, Jump Over the Candle Stick" in our minds.

In the third grade, under the able supervision of Mrs. Mayhorn and Miss Whitworth, we tangled with the multiplication tables.

In 1944 we entered the fourth grade with Miss Wagner (Now Mrs. Hites) and Miss Daily struggling to teach us the things a fourth grader should know.

Miss Wagner and Miss McWilliams led us through our fifth year during which we put on the operetta, "The Honey Pirates", directed by Miss Fravel.

At last we reached what we thought then to be our goal. We became sixth graders, the upper-classmen of the grade school, but soon we were to find out that we had just started. Mr. Zimmerman and Miss Barrett were our teachers at the beginning of the year. During the year Miss Barrett left us to become Mrs. Tupps and Mrs. Shoemaker became our teacher. We presented another operetta this year entitled "The Old Crosspatch." The end of the sixth grade was celebrated by a visit to the seventh grade in the high school and finally by our Sixth Grade Graduation.

When we first entered A. H. S. the building actually shone with the brilliance of our happy faces, for we had been looking forward to our first year in high school for a long time. During the first few days a part of the glamour wore off, and we settled down to the serious tasks of learning how not to get lost trying to find the next class, getting acquainted with our teachers and each other, learning the mysteries of new lockers and, incidentally, getting some studying done. Finally we got down to business and elected some class officers: Shirley Thompson, president; Wayne Fleming, vice-president; Richard Smith, secretary-treasurer; and Gloria Nichols, student council. Our homeroom advisers were Miss Williams and Mrs. Tallman.

Slowly May approached and suddenly we were free again! We were not sorry to say "so long" to Ada High for a while but we were ready to return the next fall to start our eighth grade work. This year we elected Nancy Long to be our president. John Hays was vice-president. The other officers were Wayne Fleming, secretary; Antoinette Anastasi, treasurer; and Gloria Nichols, student council. Mr. Polite and Miss Buehler were our sponsors. We faced the eighth grade state tests and discovered that they were not as difficult as we had thought.

As we entered the freshman year of high school we were able to feel that at last we were accomplishing something, even though the seniors still looked down on us. We were able to join F. H. A., F. F. A., and G. A. A. Some of the boys went out for basketball and football. Our officers this year were: Jerry Hipsher, president; Wayne Fleming, vice-president; Jack Suhr, secretary; Ed Baker, treasurer; and Dan Snyder, student council. Our home room advisers were Mr. McPhearson and Mrs. Underwood.

As September, 1950, drew around, we became sophomores. We were taking various courses and making our places in sports and organizations. We were able to join Y-Teens and Hi-Y that year. Several of our class mates were in the choir. Valerie Evers was our president. Our other officers were: Wayne Fleming, vice-president; Shirley Sheldon, secretary; Antoinette Anastasi, treasurer; and Ed Baker and Gloria Nichols, student council. Miss Hankish and Mr. Swallow were our advisers.

When we entered our junior year we discovered that we had a lot of work cut out for us. We presented our class play "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". To raise money for our prom we sold candy and sponsored a bake sale. The theme of our prom was "Aloha". We felt quite successful as we finished our junior year. Much of this success was due to our class officers: Wayne Fleming, president; Ed Baker, vice-president; Jack Suhr, secretary; and Fred Runser, treasurer. Ed Baker, Wayne Fleming and Gloria Nichols were student council representatives. Mr. Obenour was our class sponsor.

Senior! Senior! The word was music to our ears. But we soon became accustomed to it, and started to work again. Our dream was a trip to New York and Washington and we meant to do all we could to realize it. Again we sold candy, held a magazine sale and sponsored a donkey ball game. Our play, held April 9 and 10, was "The Adorable Spendthrift." We climaxed our year with our trip to New York and Washington on April 23.

The officers who led us through our last year of high school were: John Anspach, president; Wayne Fleming, vice-president; Fred Runser, secretary; Jack Suhr, treasurer; and Shirley Sheldon, Jack Suhr, Gloria Nichols and Tom Tallman, student council.

Of course nothing could be quite as important to us as that one last glorious day when we will receive our diplomas. We will never forget the times we had here and the friends we made. But now, with high hopes, we take another step into the future and say farewell to our high school days.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 1963 the most popular book on the newstand, already selling in the millions, is a multi- biographical edition of the members of the 1953 graduating class of Ada High School written by Ralph E. Obenour, now recognized in literature as one of the greatest authors of the twentieth century. This beautifully bound best seller is being published by Mabel Crawford and Company. It is not only fantastic and humorous, but also thrilling, breath-taking, and stupendous. It shows the miraculous lives of 42 of the world's greatest leaders. As we skim through the book we will give you a glimpse into the life of each of these famous individuals.

After attending both Ohio Northern and Ohio State Universities Gunars Abele, the great architect, designed and was in charge of the construction of the new atomic subway under the Atlantic Ocean.

Pat Amstutz, who just recently directed the square dancing in the big arena at the World's Fair in Paris is now directing all square dancing at Maysville.

We find Pat LaRue as the head secretary to Roger Fleming, who is now in charge of the world's biggest syndicate of movie theaters.

John Anspach, one of the most famous names in the world, not only finished last season with the Indians as a 20 game winner but has become president of the Janitorial Union for Chiropractors in the United States.

Dick Downer was just fired as chief clown of Ringling Bros. Circus for tearing down all the tents and letting the animals run wild.

While this book was going to press, we received a flash from the Indianapolis Speedway that Bob Hooper had just double lapped George Wissinger with an amazing average speed of 220 miles an hour in his atomic racer. Wissinger has just recently taken over Bischoff's Highway Oil Company. Hooper recently opened a car manufacturing company whose slogan is "If you can't rod it--don't buy it".

Dorothy Houser has just finished a lecture tour of Hardin County, speaking and giving quotations from Milton's "Paradise Lost". Having memorized most of his works she has become famous as a renowned scholar.

Jim Crates is now convalescing from over-work at the Ada Herald having broken the world's record for baling paper.

Following the retirement of Waite Hoyt, the famous baseball commentator, Bob Hitchcock rose to such fame that he is now on a nation-wide hook up.

After owning and running Lennox Manufacturing Company for a few years, "Big" Bill Gilbert has just bought out Westinghouse. Being very active in amateur dramatics he just received the lead role in the "Great Lover", the play currently being put on by the Ada Community Theater.

Mrs. Dottie Baker, Wife of General Elvin Baker, has just completed a tour around the world in her own atomic jet.

Wayne Fleming, Ralph Spar and Arden Searson last year were called before the Supreme Court for owning a monopoly. Among them they owned all of Hardin County. Mrs. (Connie Conley) Fleming wife of the head agricultural agent in western Hardin County, has been named "Farm Wife of 1963".

Mr. & Mrs. (Jean Marshall) Fred Runser are teachers at Ada High School taking over the positions of retiring Mr. & Mrs. J. J. Kreglow.

As we continue through the book we find Antoinette Anastasi as the wife of a prominent business man. She is the social leader of New York society.

Rising rapidly in the coaching profession are Jack Suhr and Ed Baker, now head coaches at Massilon and Mansfield respectively. In their latest annual football skirmish the game ended in a 60 - 60 tie.

Mildred Brown, president of G.A.A. during her senior year, has just won the woman's decathlon in the 1963 Olympics held in the Belgian Congo.

Pat Wright, Zona Smith, and Donna Cribbley invented an atomic ditto machine to make their work as speed experts easier.

Pat Spellman, mother of 13 children, has just invented a new way to sterilize nipples for baby bottles.

Appearing on the cover of the January "63" Look Magazine was Peggy Halbedel with the latest hair style created by Mary Bea Griffith. It was entitled "Fruit Style No. 1" and consisted of fruit entwined with hair.

Jean (Warthman) Sleesman and Betty (Decker) Fisher recently competed in the Best Farm Wife in Hardin County Contest. Neither of them won.

The new president of the Electrical Engineers' Union is Dick Smith who designed the complete wiring for the new indestructible atomic city.

Anabel Motter was on the program for the 1961 presidential inauguration. She gave the reading "We Still (?) Like Ike."

The new leading lady of the Metropolitan Opera is Helen Smith. She rose to fame with her version of the "Hot Canary".

We find Ellen Smith and Beverly Battery as the world famous door-to-door saleswomen of horse hair toothpicks.

Gloria Nichols, wife of the owner of the Cub Syndicated Restaurants, is teaching school at Van's Corner Public School No. 15.

Tom Tallman has moved into foreman position of Railroad Crew No. 5. What's so funny about that---there are only 4 crews.

After a gay college career Shirley Sheldon owned her own construction company. She was the designer and chief contractor for the new Empire State Building.

Dan Snyder graduated from Wooster College with honors; after teaching law at Ohio Northern for five years, he became a judge on the Supreme Court. He is also owner and managing editor for the New York Times.

Shirley Tinsler, D.R.E. of First Methodist Church in Chicago is touring Hardin County lecturing on "Your Future Smashed by the Bottles."

This is the end of this edition, but the Crawford Publishing Company has already signed a contract with Mr. R. E. Obenour for another book to be written in 1973.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Ada High School, on this twenty-first day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty three, being of sound and healthy mind, do ordain and establish this as our last will and testament.

SECTION I. ARTICLE I.

To our friendly enemy, the Junior Class, we do grudgingly bequeath the following things:

Our exceedingly empty treasury
The senior homeroom
The privilege of taking a senior trip

SECTION II. ARTICLE I.

This senior class leaves their thanks to all of the teachers who have helped us along the way.

We also leave the "pleasant memories" of our class.

SECTION III. ARTICLE I.

Edward Baker leaves his acting ability to the class of "55" for their junior play.

To our adviser, Mr. Ralph Obenour, Dorothy Houser leaves all of her gripes.

Peggy Halbedel wills her seat on the school bus to Waldo Rayl.

Arden Searson, Jr. leaves all of his girls to John Marshall.

Shirley Tinsler wills her famous baton to Shirley LaRue.

Thomas Tallman leaves his trips to the sophomore lockers to anyone with the ambition to climb the stairs.

The singing ability of Helen Smith is willed to Joyce Anspach.

Mervin Rush leaves his weight for next year's football team.

Betty Decker leaves the presidency of F. H. A. to go into homemaking herself.

To James Curtis, Robert Hitchcock wills his great height.

Mary Bea Griffith wills her posture to Linda Main.

Richard Downer leaves his ability to skip school to James Harsh.

Antoinette Anastasi leaves Ada, glad to be gone.

Fred Runser wills his imitations of various animals to no one. He wants to keep them for himself.

Patsy Spellman leaves all of her comments for the use of next year's speech class.

George Wissinger leaves Ada High School with little or no regret.

Ellen Smith wills her unassuming manner to Joyce May.

Gunars Abele leaves his low bass voice to Joe Harrod.

Patricia LaRue wills her secretarial ability to anyone who can sit on the boss's lap.

Jean Marshall leaves her sports ability to Barbara Goodwin.

John Anspach leaves the Senior class presidency to anyone with nerve enough to take it.

To Sue Young, Constance Conley leaves her boisterous actions. Patricia Wright wills her bright red hair to Juanita Anspach. James Crates leaves the privilege of popping pop corn for the football games to anyone who can skip seventh period.

Patricia Amstutz wills her jolly ways to Norma LaRue.

Shirley Sheldon leaves her dark hair and blue eyes to Doris Simon.

Daniel Snyder wills his laugh to Joe Goodwin. Make good use of it, Joe.

Mildred Brown leaves her long blonde hair to Shirley Marquart.

Beverly Hattery leaves her English book reports to no one.

Ralph Spar wills his ability to run hot rods to Walter Anspach.

To Ruth Roider, Jean Warthman leaves her many hours of piano practicing.

Anabel Motter leaves all of her readings to her brother, Ronald.

Robert Hooper wills his address book and instructions to Jack Fensler.

Gloria Nichols wills her dimple to anyone with another to match.

William Gilbert wills his way to get along with the girls to Richard Ackerman.

Dottie Baker leaves Ada High to join Elvin.

Roger Fleming leaves school to work full time at the movie.

Donna Cribbley wills her square dancing to Larry Reams.

Richard Smith leaves his "fiddling around" to Butch Klingler.

Zona Smith wills her co-operativeness to the class of "54".

Next year they will need it!

Jack Suhr leaves all of his love quarrels to Herb Spallinger.

We now affix our seal to this, our last will and testament.

Gloria Nichols

CLASS POEM

There are many treasures tucked away

within our memory's chest.

Yet of all the memories hidden there,

Those of Ada High are best.

That Freshman year when we were new,

And our teachers' patience tried,

How hard they worked to help us learn,

How oft they failed and sighed.

That Sophomore year in fifty-one

When we were not quite so green,

When teachers smiled and thought,

At last an improvement may be seen.

That Junior year when we were sure

We knew all there was to know,

When the teachers shook their heads and said,

They'll soon receive a blow.

Now we come to our senior year.

We finally realize,

How very much there is to learn,

Before we can be wise.
